I. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This document establishes policies and procedures for setting release dates and releasing youth who have been committed to Juvenile Rehabilitation (JR). This policy does not pertain to parole violations or youth on revocation status.

All staff, contractors, volunteers, and interns working in the Division of Juvenile Institution Programs, Division of Community Programs and Parole, and the Division of Operations and Support Services are responsible for reviewing and complying with JR policies.

II. POLICY

1. The Juvenile Court establishes the disposition for youth committed to JR by court order.

- 1.1. If JR receives a court order that is incomplete, inconsistent with law, or is ambiguous, designated staff will contact the court of commitment to resolve the issue. JR Legal Services is available to assist with resolution.
- 1.2. The Central Office Diagnostic Liaison will develop guidelines and have oversight of this process.

Policy 6.50 (10), Establishing the Release-from-Commitment Date 6/25/2014*2. JR establishes the youth's release date within the court ordered minimum and maximum disposition.

- 2.1. If a youth has multiple dispositions, JR will aggregate those dispositions to establish the total term of commitment and create one aggregated minimum release date and one aggregated maximum release date.
- 2.2. JR must establish the release within this disposition range prior to the expiration of 60% of a youth's minimum term.
- 2.3. The date on which JR plans to release a youth will be referred to as the "Current Established Release Date" or CERD.
- 2.4. Release date changes are automatically documented in ACT.

3. Youth and parents or legal guardians must be notified whenever a CERD changes.

- 3.1. The case manager is responsible for notification per Policy 1.40 (29), Maintaining Confidentiality when Releasing Records and documentation of notification in ACT.

4. JR sets the initial release date upon completion of the intake and risk assessment process.

- 4.1. Initial release date is set based on RCW 13.40.210.
 - 4.1.1. The release date is set automatically in ACT based on the initial Risk Assessment - Recidivism (RAR) score.
 - 4.1.2. Staff will notify youth of the release date as soon as ACT sets the date.
- 4.2. Upon intake, all youth categorized as Very Low, Low and Moderate on the RAR will be eligible for release on their minimum release date.
- 4.3. Upon intake, all youth categorized as High on the RAR will have their release date set at the midpoint between their minimum and maximum release dates.
- 4.4. Upon intake, all youth categorized as Very High on the RAR will have their release date set at their maximum release dates.

5. A youth's minimum and maximum release dates may be increased when a youth receives additional dispositions while under JR commitment.

- 5.1. If a youth receives an additional disposition while serving a commitment, the youth's release date will be adjusted, creating a new total term of commitment.
- 5.2. When an additional commitment is received, the youth cannot be released prior to the new minimum release date.

6. The Current Established Release Date for youth categorized as High and Very High on the RAR may be reduced based on the outcome of the Case Review process.

- 6.1. Case Reviews will be conducted on all youths categorized as High and Very High on the RAR if the court ordered minimum disposition is not the same as the maximum disposition.
- 6.2. Case Reviews will coincide with the Integrated Treatment Plan (ITP) due dates, which will include a list of Integrated Treatment Assessment (ITA) domains measuring risk and protective factors.

Policy 6.50 (10), Establishing the Release-from-Commitment Date 6/25/2014

- 6.3. Youth's progress in treatment, transition/reentry needs and readiness, and relevant ITA domains will guide the team decision about whether to support a change in release date.
- 6.4. Final approval of the case review recommendation will be made by the Community Facility Administrator, Program Manager, or Supervisor. Case reviews must be approved within 7 days of the due date.
- 6.5. Youths may receive 90 days off from their Current Established Release Date at each Case Review.
- 6.6. Once a youth has received all possible time off, Case Reviews will continue in order to monitor continued treatment progress and goal attainment. Youth will demonstrate continued progress in order to retain their early release.
- 7. The Current Established Release Date for any youth may be extended for treatment-interfering behavior or major incidents.
 - 7.1. Youths who exhibit behavior representing a significant risk to the community may have their CERD set at the maximum release date. Such behavior includes but is not limited to assault, escape and significant property damage.
 - 7.2. Youths who exhibit repeated and documented behavior that interferes with treatment or who do not participate in treatment resulting in a regression of progress may have the CERD extended by 90 days.
 - 7.3. Extending the youth's CERD by 90 days may only occur one time in a youth's commitment. Any additional extension will be to the maximum release date.
 - 7.4. The recommendation to extend the CERD is made during the case review process. A secondary review must be held to make the final determination on extension. The secondary review must be chaired by an Associate Superintendent or Community Facility Administrator.
 - 7.4.1. Youth must be afforded due process provisions during the case review process.
 - 7.4.1.1. Youth must be provided a written notice at least three working days in advance of the review indicating the reason(s) for the consideration;
 - 7.4.1.2. Youth have the right to appear in person at the review and present documentary evidence regarding the incident. Youth may also ask a staff advocate to attend with them.
 - 7.4.1.3. Youth have the right to ask questions of the decisionmaker.
 - 7.4.1.4. Youth have the right to appeal the decision to extend a release date through the youth complaint process in accordance with Policy 2.10 (13), Handling Youth Complaints.
 - 7.4.2. For incidents of youth on staff assaults, refer to Policy 5.80 (45), Reviewing and Reporting Staff Assaults by Youth.
 - 7.5. The Superintendent, Regional Administrator or designee is responsible for the final determination regarding the adjustment to the CERD. The decision must be documented in ACT.

Policy 6.50 (10), Establishing the Release-from-Commitment Date 6/25/2014

- 7.6. Youth returning to an institution from a community facility may have the CERD adjusted.
 - 7.6.1. If the transfer to the institution is for 30 days or less, a CERD adjustment will be approved by the sending Regional Administrator.
 - 7.6.2. If the transfer to the institution is for 30 days or more, a CERD adjustment will be approved by the Superintendent with recommendations from the CF treatment team.
- 7.7. When youth categorized as Very Low, Low and Moderate on the RAR receive an increase in their CERD for behavior, case reviews will be conducted until the youth returns to their earliest possible CERD.
- 8. Youth who qualify for release may be held for more than 30 days past their CERD for specific treatment or transition purposes.
 - 8.1. Youth may not be held past their maximum release dates.
 - 8.2. The treatment team must recommend that the reason for remaining past the CERD is beneficial for the youth as demonstrated by risk and protective factors on the Integrated Treatment Assessment (ITA), including arranging stable housing.
 - 8.3. A local administrative review must be conducted. The administrative review must follow the case review process.
 - 8.4. Youth must be afforded the due process outlined in section 7.41 whenever the release date is considered for extension.
 - 8.5. The Superintendent, Regional Administrator or designee is responsible for making the final recommendation for retention beyond the minimum release date to the Director.
 - 8.6. The Director makes the final decision regarding approval for the youth to remain in JR.
- 9. The CERD may be adjusted by adding or subtracting up to 30 days to accommodate transition needs.
 - 9.1. Youth must be afforded the due process outlined in section 7.41 whenever the release date is considered for extension.
 - 9.2. A youth may be released within four calendar days prior to their release date for transitional purposes such as transportation, school, and employment. If the release date is to be adjusted for more than four days, approval is needed from the Superintendent, Regional Administrator or designee.
 - 9.3. Release dates may be extended to accommodate transitional purposes when required except for youth at their maximum release date. Reasons for adding days may include:
 - 9.3.1. Completion of an educational or vocational program
 - 9.3.2. Completion of a required treatment program
 - 9.3.3. Acceptance to a post-release program
 - 9.3.4. Changes to a youth's placement arrangements
